Dear David:

Thank you for your telephone call last week concerning the imposter who phoned you representing himself to be me.

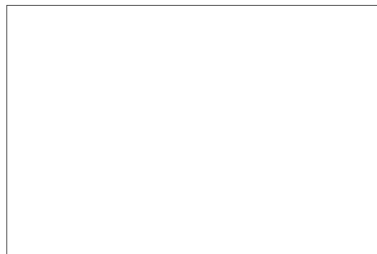

I have now received a little report from the police concerning [redacted] who was identified by them as the man who called you. The Westbury, Connecticut police apparently are quite familiar with [redacted] who has made similar telephone calls in the past and, as you know, is a war veteran with a mental disturbance. They are quite sympathetic toward [redacted] and merely have taken steps to return him to the Veterans' Hospital at West Haven, Connecticut.

I very much appreciate your prompt handling of this matter. With best wishes.

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
